

Brenton L. Gragg is an associate attorney with a broad practice area. He works in bankruptcy adversarial litigation as well as both the litigation and transactional sides of commercial law and real estate.

In law school, Brenton excelled in both litigation and transactional competitions. His team won the “Best Draft” award in the University of Colorado Law School’s transactional drafting competition, and he tied for “Best Oralist” in moot court.

Brenton enjoys running, music, board games, and spending time with his wife and son.
